Dear Ms Hibri

Re: Application for renewal of registration

I refer to your application to renew your registration as a National Vocational Education and Training Regulator registered training organisation (RTO).

In accordance with the provisions of the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (NVR Act), your application for registration has been granted. Please note that this notice does not constitute certification that your organisation, or any material provided either with your application or reviewed in assessing your application, complies with all requirements of the VET Quality Framework or applicable conditions of registration.

The National Register has been updated to include the following key details of your organisation:

Legal name: TFIA Business Services Pty Ltd

RTO ID number: 4132

Period of registration

Your organisation has been granted registration for a period of seven years which commences on 1 August 2022 and is due to expire on 31 July 2029. A Certificate of Registration is attached.

You can apply to ASQA to renew or withdraw your organisation's registration, and timeframes and obligations apply to each process. There are also obligations on organisations that effectively cease to operate, even though they remain registered as RTOs. Further information about obligations in these circumstances is available from the ASQA website.
